➤➤➤ Objective

Experienced educator with decades of teaching experience and broad advanced technology skills seeks opportunities to collaboratively integrate tech and training. Skilled at mediation between specializations and using empathy to connect people. My broad, practical digital experience and ability to bring simplicity and consistency to complex concepts helps streamline processes, redesign workflows, and enhance professionalism and clarity.

Twenty years of teaching, seven years of editorial/publishing work, and five years of podcasting support my ability to facilitate discourse and interaction. Well-suited to strengthen teams that integrate people and technology.
