Friend,

Just wanted to thank you again for all the ways in which you inspired me, educated me, and really fostered growth within me. You are without a doubt my favorite professor at Saint Leo, and I really hope our paths will cross again one day! I am glad to inform you that I was accepted to both institutions I applied to, and am pleased to say that I will be heading to Xavier University next year. Again, if you need any help with the textbook we created, please let me know. Here is my personal email for your convenience:

I wish you all the best and have a great summer!

Thanks.
